

William "Larry" Thompson

August 30, 1949 - April 2, 2014

Services for William Larry Thompson, 64, of Whitehouse, will be held on Sunday, April 6, 2014 at 2:00 PM at Stewart Family Funeral Home with Rev. Ron Herring officiating. Visitation will follow the service.

Burial will follow at Whitehouse City Cemetery in Whitehouse under the direction of Stewart Family Funeral Home.

He was born August 30, 1949 in Atlanta, Texas and passed away Wednesday, April 2, 2014 in Tyler.

Larry was a faithful member of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church for 37 years. He grew up in Whitehouse and attended Whitehouse schools and Tyler Junior College. After college Larry moved to Dallas until returning to Whitehouse in 1977. He was a draftsman for C.B. & I company in Tyler since 1981, until his death.

Larry loved all of his family, but he especially adored his Jan, who was his devoted wife and lifelong sweetheart, and his daughter, Jennifer, the pride and joy of his life. Larry also had a passion for playing golf, and anything related to the old days such as 60's music, muscle cars and ice cold coca-cola.

He is survived by his loving family including his wife of 44 years, Janice Thompson of Whitehouse; daughter, Jennifer Head and her husband Michael and their son Elijah of Dallas; mother and step-father, Christine and John Mogle of Whitehouse; siblings, Ella Vines, David Mogle, Danny Mogle and wife Melanie. Other family members include Bernice Melton, Peggy and Jimmy Rains, Patsy and Wayne McDougal, Jim and Katherine Womack.

If desired, memorials may be made to Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, 13590 Hwy 110, Tyler, Texas 75707.
