“ I grew with Winnie and her sister Vera as neighbors in Tyler on Third Street. They were wonderful, kind, and affectionate women, generous and open with us. I've always had wonderful memories of them! Our family's condolences to her family.

“ Thank you Aunt Winnie for loving me and taking care of me as a child. I will cherish all the precious memories of growing up in Tyler. I will never forget the last few years and how we were able to chat and talk about all the times when I was a kid. It was a pleasure and a joy to take care of you over the past few years as you became ill. I know you are in heaven with your sisters and brother now. I know that you are smiling down upon us, just as you always had a smile on earth. I love you Winnie Pooh!
