“ Even though I never had the chance to meet this young lady, the connections of her parents and fore parents run deep within my soul and on this day I mourn when I know I should rejoice for she relaxes now away from the cruelty of this world, and smiles back from the other side.

My heart goes out to the family, be strong and look to the hills and think of those wonderful times you spent together. God Bless each of you.

“ Death is such a paradox. On the one hand, it brings unspeakable sorrow and yet the loss of one of Jehovah's precious loyal ones is also a victory which brings joy beyond compare. Even at this terrible time, we see the future with our "eyes of faith"; our dear sister actually going ahead of us in a sense into that new world of righteousness under perfect conditions. We long for that day when all of this will be reversed completely forever. May Jehovah be with you all and may your faith be reinforced by his care and comfort as we await a "new heavens and new earth."

Please accept my love and admiration of you all for your endurance and faithful examples, Brent, Clareen, Billy, Vanessa, Von, Vicki and all the family.

“ To Brent, & Vet's Family, May Jehovah continue to sustain you in this most difficult and painful time. Know that you're Loved and Supported by many dear friends all over. We'll all miss her charming smile and strong 'love' for Jehovah. We are not overly saddened by this "sting" for we have the hope of the "Paradise"! So we wait with anticipation to see our "loved" ones again. We will miss Vet. Our Love and deepest sympathy is with you and the Family members.

“ To Swann & Bass Family,

Rob and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. Vet's death has come as a complete and unexpected surprise to us. We didn't realize that she had been ill. Obviously, there's no amount of words that we can express to compare to the grief that you are experiencing at this difficult time. However, we would like you to know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers.

We pray that Jehovah will continue to give you the strength to get through this most difficult time.

“ What do you say at times like this? I was so shocked and saddened to hear about Vette's untimely death. Ecc. 7:1 reminds me of the good name Vette made for herself. I knew her as a young person and always admired her love Jehovah and the truth. She had a lovely smile and a contagious laugh. Brent, Billy, Clareen, Von, Vicki, and Vanessa I cannot imagine the pain you must feel losing a wife, daughter, and sister. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. May the God of all comfort; comfort you all 2Cor. 1:3,4. We love you all and will eagerly await the resurrection along with you. Jared and Amy Stephenson

“ Dear Brent, Clareen, Billy & Family:
We were shocked when we heard about Yvette's death and our thoughts and prayers go out to all of you. Of course we grieve at the loss of our Spiritual Sister, just as Jesus grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus. However knowing that death is temporary brings comfort as well as the wonderful promises our Heavenly Father has given, that one day soon we will see Yvette again, healthy and strong, then our tears will be those of great joy! Jehovah is the God of comfort and by staying close to Him and to our Congregations we draw comfort and strength.

“ My heart is still heavy with shock and grief since I learned about Yvette....and I don't quite know how to express my condolences to you..... except to say, "Vet was a very very special person who was loved by everybody....And Jehovah willing, she will soon be reunited with all of her family and friends, who will welcome her back and continue to love her throughout eternity, on an earth where 'death will be no more'. May Jehovah help you get through this period. You will continue to be in my prayers.

“ Words cannot express the sadness I feel upon hearing of Vette's untimely death. Though death befalls us all (eventually) in this 'old system', we can be comforted that death is not the end and we look forward to the day that we see Vette again. (John 11:25) Vette set such a wonderful example of faithfulness and loyalty to Jehovah and his organization. She left us all something to marvel at, admire and aspire to. My hope is that you, Sis/Bro Swann, Von/Jessica, Vicki, Vanessa, and you Sis/Bro Peales as close aunt/uncle, and especially you Brent as her husband will remember the many good things about Vette and the fine example she set, one we can all learn from. I know this is a difficult time now and one that lye ahead. Please be comforted by the fact that Jehovah understands and he is near to you all. He tells us he is 'near to those broken at heart; and those crushed in spirit he saves' (Psalms 34:18). We now have to continue in this system to be faithful to Jehovah and each other, so that we can see our loved ones again. We can be certain that Vette did "endure to the end" and that in itself is a great source of encouragement to us all. I will continue to keep in touch with you guys. If there is anything I can do to be of assistance, please don't hesitate to let me know. I love you all.

My deepest condolences,

Chell

“ The loss of Yvette is overwhelming right now. But keep in mind time heals all pain and when enough time has passed. What will remain are the shared memories of your lives with Yvette. It is my prayer that those memories will hold you until you see Yvette again in Jehovah's new world. Please accept my deepest sympathy in your time of sorrow.
